

„The Vision of the cities"
150x90cm

A diptych that pushed me to work on illustrating my imagination related to South Korea. It shows how I imagined South Korean metropolises during the day and at night. I decided to print them on transparent foil, which would give the possibility of backlighting to emphasize the strong colors and the thicket of elements of the urban landscape.